MEMO TO: Dr. A. G. Bailey

31st May 1968

SUBJECT: Faculty of Law Building - Name

Alfred,

I have looked into the matter of the judges of New Brunswick and find that our first Chief Justice was referred to, and referred to himself, as George D. Ludlow as well as George Duncan Ludlow. In view of this, it would seem we could call the new Law building George Ludlow Hall, unless you feel that, historically, it would be much better to call it George Duncan Ludlow Hall. The trouble with the second one is that it is a bit of a mouthful. Would you give me your advice and suggestions?
