

port from here & Portsmouth prays let me hear from you - I mentioned to you in my last the circumstance of Mr Tailhades Mother calling on me & I wished to hear what you had to say thereon. - Pray let me know his name which I have forgotten, as well as Mr Tailhades address as I mean to call on her (I do not recollect her number) I dined at Kensington yesterday week in company with Jarvis & his Cousin, Mr Wiltshire & Capt W - were both well he had not then rec'd the letter or parcel which by your letter to Jarvis, you had forwarded him by the hands of Mr Jennings. - Now ~~let~~ is your name? - I hope you are comfortable & every thing as it ought to be - Remember me to all - I have not yet paid Curtis or Saunders but shall as soon as I return to Town.

Every thing else is settled. - I spoke to Locke about their charges. They say that they have always been uniformly the same & that you can convince yourself of that by a reference to a com=parison with your former invoices of the Indus or with the invoices of other Commanders. - with regard to any other things remain in statu quo the Balcarra I believe is still open but I have not yet rec'd the sum wished for deposit from Hancover.
God bless you My Dr Fellow & Believe me ever yours
