

of the Walls of said Fort, and that Her Majesty be humbly addressed to put a Garrison of one hundred men under proper Officers to secure the same for the future - the charge of ^{its} maintenance being so very great, & the other Frontiers of the Province being so far extended, that puts the Province to almost an insupportable Charge in time of War with the French and Indians.

John Goreham,
Edward Brattle.

After reading of which Report, his Excellency put the Question to the Board, whether they accepted the ^{said} Report of the Committee, and it passed in the Affirmative.

And the said Report was thereupon again sent down to the Representatives, with the said Vote of the Board for accepting the same by Nathaniel Pyfield Esq.
