

1750.

U.S. ARCHIVES

- April 25. Came to sail about 5 o.c. P. M. - small wind - and about 9 o.c. came to anchor in Minis Basin under Cape Porcupine.
26. Came to sail about 7 o.c., and at 1 anchored at the Landing Place near the Fort in Minis. Disembarked the troops about 2 o.c., and at 3 o.c. marched to the Grand Prie and quartered ourselves in the same places where we were before. The Major sent a Courier to Halifax immediately upon our arrival.
28. Lt. Gorham went with a command on board the Dove, which sailed the same day, as did Mr. Salisbury, for Annapolis Royal.
29. Rainy weather and considerable thunder and lightning.
30. Wrote mamma on return of the Courier from Halifax.
- May 1. The Courier returned from Halifax.
3. Wrote my sister and J. Green and Rogers who sailed the same day.
4. The Albany sailed for Boston.
5. The whole party marched about 9 o.c. Halted at 12 o.c., and about 6 in the morning arrived at Pisquitt - quartered in the same houses and barns as when there last.
- Sun'y 6. Landed all the stores and provisions from on board the York; in the afternoon she sailed for Annapolis.
7. The courier arrived from Halifax with counter orders, upon which Phillips was sent to order Rous up to take off the stores, who got up the same night. George Hill returned with two Frenchman prisoners which he took at Cobequitt.
8. Put all the stores and provisions on board the Dove. Wrote Mr. Green.
9. About 6 o.c. the whole detachment marched from Pisquitt, and got to Minis about 2. The Dove arrived at same time. Phillips went to Pisquitt for the timber left there; was fired upon by some Indians and French, and the 10th returned to Minis.
14. Phillips and Rous returned from a cruise, having had a skirmish with the French and Indians.
15. Wrote to Mr. Green and enclosed a letter for my sister.
- 22 Received letters from my sister and Mr. Pierce.