

Oblig'd to you to forward them by some careful hand.
 M^r. Vassall has been dangerously ill but is getting well again all your other Acquaintances are well - M^r. H. begs her best regards - I am my D^r. friend Yours Affly

Bristol May 9. 1780.

Ms. A. 9. 1. 1780.
 Vol. 11. 1. 1780.

Wm. Mowbray

Notwithstanding my Dear Friend, you had laid a prohibition on my writing, I had determined to break through it, even before I got your letter by Capt. Murray, which I only received about ten days ago, and I believe is the only one I have had from you for near twelve Months - Murray arrived in ~~England~~ Ireland sometime in January - he tarried there near three Months, and came to this place on his way to Cambridge to see his father - he returned from thence last Tuesday, and Thursday evening set off for his first visit to London - About three Months since Tho. Sheafe was here, and presented me with an order for what Money I had of yours in my hands (but no letter) - the young Gentleman seemed exceedingly disappointed, when he found I had only 15 or 16 Guin^{ts}. and said he should not have come to England, if he had not expected to have received at Least £40 - I suppose from that Circumstance, you must imagine I had got the Money from