

be given at the sale

Books

The History of the American War, or the glorious exploits of Generals Gage Howe Howe Burgoyne Cornwallis and Clinton

The Royal Pocket companion being a new system of Policy founded on Rules deduced from the nature of man & approved by experience whereby a Prince may in a short time render himself obnoxious by his subjects & detested by all good men

A new & complete system of Cruelty containing a variety of modern improvements in that art embellished with an elegant frontispiece representing the inside view of a prison ship

Select fables of Aesop with suitable morals & applications; amongst which are "The dog & the shadow" "the man & his goose which laid a golden egg &c"

The Key fit of Great Britain to the Dominion of the sea a poetical fiction

The State of Great Britain in October 1760 & October 1780 compared & contrasted

A geographical historical & political History of the rights & possessions of the Crown of Great Britain in America this valuable work consisted of 13 Vols. folio but is abridged by a royal hand into a single pocket duodecimo for the greater convenience of himself & his subjects

The Laws of nations revised & amended to which is added by way of appendix an account of the capture of the Island of Moustiques by Admiral Rodney

A full & true account of the conquest of the four southern rebel colonies with notes critical & explanatory by Earl Cornwallis

A narrative of the shipwreck of Lord Howdon in his voyage from Charlestown to London

Miracles not ceased or the remarkable interposition of Providence in causing the moon to delay her setting for more than two hours to favor the retreat of General Joshua & the British Army after the Battle of Monmouth

The political Liar a weekly paper published by the subscribers: bound in Volumes

UNL ARCHIVES

Fears of repentance: or the present state of loyal refugees in New York & elsewhere

Plays

West Point preserved or the Plot discovered a tragic comedy
Miss M'frea a Tragedy — The Meschianza a Pantomime.
Burgoyne's Adieu. The sleeveless errand or the Commissioners of Peace. The March to Valley Forge. The unsuccessful Attempt by Gov^r Johnstone — The Amorous Hero & contented cuckold by Gen^l Howe — Comedies —
The Battle of the Clouds a Farce — Who I have thought it or the introduction of 24 British Standards to the rebel Congress a procession

Maps & Prints

An elegant Map of the British empire in America upon a very small scale

An accurate Chart of the coast of North America from New Hampshire to Florida with the soundings of all the principal bays Harbours rivers & inlets. This work was undertaken & completed by his Majesty's special command & at the national expense of many millions of money thousands of men & hundreds of royal ships & valuable Merchant men — A plan of Lord Cornwallis's March through the southern colonies beginning at Charlestown & terminating at York Town in Virginia — the preceding chart gives an accurate description of the sea coast as it was intended to give a correct map of the internal parts of this country; but the savage inhabitants grew jealous of the operation & actually prohibited his Lordship's further progress

a very distant Prospect of North America neatly engraved

A view of the Battle of Saratoga & its companion the Siege of York Town

British representations of the principal engagements in the present war highly coloured by eminent hands. These prints are so ingeniously contrived that by reversing them it exhibits the American or French view of the same actions uncoloured

A humorous Representation of the triumphal Procession of Brigadier General Arnold & his friend & councillor through the streets of Philadelphia in effigy

The times. a satirical print representing the British Lion as blind in both eyes thirteen of his teeth drawn & his claws pared off with Lord North in the character of a farrier bleeding him in tail for his recovery

Philosophical Apparatus

A curious new invented magic lantern very useful for people at the head of affairs. This was contributed by an able Artist under Lord North's immediate direction