

Adjutant General's Office
New York 28th Sept: 1783

Sir

I am directed by the Commander in Chief to inform you that the British American Corps which have been sent from this place to Nova Scotia to be disbanded, have been allowed the Barrack Bedding heretofore in their respective propositions, and to desire that the same may be allowed to the several British American Corps under your Command who have been disbanded in that Province.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your most Obedient Humble servant.
O. Delaney
Adjutant

The Honorable
Brig^{de} General Fox
de de

Adjutant General's Office
New York 28th Sept: 1783

1783

A

(copy)