

with respect to the half-pay Officers in this Country They are all to return under British Government or be deprived of their pay, it makes a great stir among them, some return others are petitioning for leave of absence &c. in my next I shall be able to give you a particular acc^t of matters -

Please to remember me very affectionately to Aunt Winstow, and my little Cousins, you may depend on the strictest attention being paid to any commands you may have this way -
