with which the more ancient Colonies have chosen to do.
Judge Saunders has sent me the Laws of New Brunswick with which I hope as much, if you could furnish me with a list of the Posts Offices, & salaries of the Officers of the Government, ^{particularly some one} with any remarks you may think proper.
If these be printed regulations for the growth of Land, nothing would be more satisfactory to me, than to receive them with your remarks on their defects; approbation or amendment of the System — Government of the If in your knowledge of the United States, you shall have perceived any radical defects, which may be illustrated by a strong & direct contrary system of conduct in the Government of Upper Canada, nothing would be more gratifying to me than your communication on such a subject. — The Government of Upper Canada will soon attract the notice of ~~the~~ the Inhabitants of America, & they will be perpetually called upon, in conversation, & act, to decide, whether the present confederation of the United States, or the with each other, or that which the British Colonies have with Great Britain, is most advantageous.

— see, my dear Sir, that I heartily & confidentially trust your offer, & am with many or honorable believe me yours &c.
