114 Dear Winslow

I am again a prisoner but do not suffer much, except for confinement

12th I called on me yesterday - we had some conversation on the affairs of the British Colonies - on which I wish much to see you. His Lordship is wanting information, for which I refer'd him to you - and I think he'll call on you very soon He has taken your young son away unmarried and will push it. He will also via Mr Legard application to Lord Camden & I have promised to send him the copy - will you send me those
