Hon: Col. Winslow

Dear Sir.

Tho' I am among the last who have the pleasure of congratulating you on your safe return to your family, and friends, beg you will not consider me less sincere, much less my absence, and a perpetual being, when at home, have caused the regret, — It was at Shelburne, with your friend Judge White, that I heard of your arrival. And that the attempts to injure you had proved particularly advantageous, which certainly afforded us the highest satisfaction — hope your voyage has proved as salutary as prosperous. That you, Mrs. Winslow and your dear Lassies may long enjoy the blessing of health
