

Conveyed to Bed & a most eminent Physician sent for. who took upwards of a Quart of Blood from his Temple. After which he seemed very easy. - I saw him in the afternoon. & was astonished to see him so easy - he was constantly talking and was full of his fun. but rather delirious at 3 o'clock in the morning of Friday - he was attacked with another & fatal apoplectic fit after which no hope or chance of his recovery. he lay without sense or motion till 15 minutes past 7 Saturday eve when he breathed his last. I was with him at the time & had been in the room half an hour. he had the rattle in his throat which is the last stage. - They suddenly stopped & he seemed to draw breath more easily - but he raised his head for a moment opened his eyes. (which had been shut from the commencement) uttered a faint cry and expired - he died without the smallest exertion and very easily -

I ever shall believe that he was perfectly sensible to his last. - for upon the application of a Quill dipped in lemon juice to his lips - not half a minute before he died. he turned away his head - he was buried yesterday with every respect - he was carried to the Province Hall. The Supreme Court was then sitting -

Order of Reception

Military Guard

High Sheriff &

Civil Officers

Wardens & Vestry

Chaplain

Medical Gentlemen

J. Robinson Esq

Wm. Lean

J. Agnew Esq

May: Kirkwood R.B.F.

J. M. Blip Esq

D. C. Thompson

I am totally destitute for I fear this estate will pay the debts. - Can you believe this. - L. J. [unclear] [unclear] on cloth -

It was not