

be still desirous of returning to the Army, and apply by Memorial for reinstatement, or other mark of ~~favor~~ grace, & cannot find a friend more powerful than myself to support it, send it inclosed to me to my Agent, Mr.
Gelpie, 33 Villiers St. Strand London, and I will do all I can to render it successful.
I have copies of Mr. G. Palmer's letter to Mr. Gen. Brock - and of the certificates of Captains Fowler & Hope - therefore you need not send copies of them with the Memorial to me; but whatever else in your possession which can help to prove your application must accompany it: - This is not a favorable season for such petitions, but I hope that they will see that in your case a juvenile indiscretion has been treated with singular leniency, & that they will be disposed to regard you at last with an eye of commi-seration & favour; to effect which nothing shall be neglected by me whilst I retain a sense of justice & a recollection of the early kindness of your excellent Father. ^{With kindest good wishes}

Poussance 8th March 1816.

My dear Winslow,

I have been tardy in acknowledging the receipt of your letter through Mr. Lutwiche, but I should not have been so if my endeavours to be useful to you had been successful; I communicated to your lamented father the fruitless application in your behalf which I made after my arrival in England; having been told in answer to them that nothing could be effected in your favour without the interference of Sir G. P.; I saw His Excellency in town and on speaking
