Sir

I am directed by Brigadier General Fox to acquaint you that he has no knowledge of the existence of such an Officer as Provost Marshal for this District. — And of course he cannot grant any Warrant for Pay as applied for in your Letter of the 8th Instant.

I have the honor to be

Your most Obedient humble servant.

Halifax Aug^r 15th 1783.

Sir

The Letter I had the honor of receiving from you yesterday calls upon me once more to inform you that you will find me appointed to the Office I alluded to in General Orders of 1st think, November 18th 1781. or sometime in that month, that it has been Ratified by my receiving Pay for it, both from General Campbell and Saberton; and that of course it has existed and must exist until superseded by some after Order.

My knowledge of Military matters leads me to know that Military Orders are Military Records; that they are and always have been received as such and are esteemed sacred. It is. I am not now soliciting a Doer, but demanding Justice; which upon an easier view of the matter General Fox will I flatter myself find to be the case.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most Obedient and most humble servant.

Ed Winslow Esq.
