Sunday Oct. 28. This morning about 3 o'clock the Gondola arrived with a load of Boards. She got a ground in the Creek or she would have been down the last 266. Col^d Prince neglects to send me any flour. I am without bread & shall be obliged to get any. If he had not promised to supply me & I could have provided for myself elsewhere.

Too wordy. Vary disappointment among these wretched Creatures causes much vexation.

Monday Oct. 29 Took out & stowed the Boards which came down yesterday. Foggy with small rain at times wind E. moderate.

Tuesday 30. Sent up the Gondola this morning for another load Boards. Wind W. with frequent rain squalls. Gondola arrived about dark.

Wednesday 31 Took in & stowed the boards brought down yesterday. a cold Cloudy day wind at W. fresh. Evening serene calm & warm.

Thursday ~~Oct 31~~ ^{Nov} 1 Got down another load boards. Fine pleasant fair day wind S by small.

Friday Nov. 2. Stowing Boards all day - but very slowly - as they all go down the Hatchway - Capt Kinney went up the River today - Cloudy Wind at about 2 P.M. - fresh.

Saturday Nov. 3 Finished Stowing the Boards which came down on Thursday. Rainy at times - wind fresh at ab. NE - towards evening the wind has gone down - & it rains steadily.

Sunday Nov. 4. Foggy rainy morning - Wind S. small - about 10 - shifted to ab. N.W. - a small breeze - more about NE at noon towards night almost Calm Cloudy but looks as tho it would be fair - dined ashore with Col^d Lovick with whom I have much chat about NE affairs - not altogether unentertaining.

Monday Nov 5. Sent the Gondola up this morning for the Cyder - sat out myself to go to Col^d Prince's but if provided of a Horse would not carry me thro, so was forced to return after travelling about 2 1/2 miles - must go tomorrow if I go on foot. - I am now writing by the last bit candle - I am close by - a Col^d & a great merchant & they can't spare me one pound - they are without themselves.
