

Annapolis 1781

U.N.B. ARCHIVES

Saturday Nov 24 Got all the Apples &c on board clear'd out - I am now ready to sail whenever it pleases Heaven to send us a fair wind

Left a Letter with Mr Ritchie for Dr Prime including duplicates of my acc^{ts} &c - also Hazzen White's note to me for 178 - £132. of which belongs to Dr Barry of the Britannia the other £46. belongs to Dr Prime also Madam Cosby's acc^t. value £6 - it is Dr's property -

Sunday Nov. 25 - Doing nothing - ready for sea wind contrary about S - moderate Cloudy -

X Interpretation of some Indian Names

Ponobscot - The place of Parting Kenebecashius. The Place of Meeting

Manwogenis a C - t

Meja Bagadoos - Amis femerina. XX

Monday 26 Nov. - Doing nothing - waiting for a wind - Wind SE - thick rainy weather - blowing fresh at times -

Annapolis 1781

U.N.B. ARCHIVES

Tuesday Nov 27. - Blew very hard all last night from SE around to about W - where it now blows an expressive hard gale - my boat has not been on shore to day - now about noon - Evening still blows hard - but with some abatement. & more to Nward. - Sent Mr Ritchie 30 fathom cable for the Schoon Betsy valued at £8 - Sent Cap^t Ben my Hawser 120 fathom valued at £10 - & Hedge anchor at 150th.
It blew so hard & made such a sea as has sunk my boat alongside - no body ashore all day

Wednesday Nov 28 This Morning stark calm - warm - looks like another spell of ~~bad~~ Southerly weather - It has continued a perfect Calm the greater part of the day - what little air there have been - were S by to S W by - Day Clouded all day after sun set the Clouds settled down to N W ward tis now fine serene Evening - calm - & soft -

Mem^d I have on board besides 4 Packages marked 2 doz Cabbages for Squire Allan } from Col^d Prime 3 bush Apples for Ditto } 1 bl Onion 6 fowls for Parson Weeks