near y water lodg'd dry - very cold Saturday 22. pleasant - encamp'd near y sea lodg'd tolerably -

Sunday 23 - found 4 oz Chocolate among our baggage on which & a piece of beef we make a delicious breakfast tho without sugar - milk bread or butter - Set out with very heavy hearts our provision growing lower & lower - not more than 2 days left besides our great dog. whom we suppose will last us 2 days more & no appearance of any inhabitants - when after taking a dismal repast on a small piece of beef & 1/4 of dumplin ~~we sat out after~~ & a small halt at noon - we discovered a Shallop - with on coming up to we find to all appearance strong & good - we also find an indian hut with a good quantity jerk'd moose - the Shallop we in together with y Shallop's sails &c - with the we intend setting out tomorrow - Thus it has pleased the divine Providence to relieve us at last for y present from y dismal apprehensions of Starving Tuesday 24 Set out with y Shallop ^{2 times} encamp'd on an Island - where we had near lost her - a dismal & very Wednesday

Thursday 25 cross'd a narrow arm of y sea & encamp'd on y main land - here we left y Shallop she being very leaky sails bad - & a small thing without any shelter - take to travelling again + Monday 26 towards night set off in y Shallop cross'd a wide bay & encamp'd Tuesday 27 - travelled as usual - Friday 28 To day so lame I could go no further so parted with my People who left me very unwillingly - gave y my share of Tiger whom we killed last night poor faithfull animal stay in y woods 2 days & 2 nights with no other sustenance y some dried moose - when I was relieved
