

St John's River 1781

Haggen - whom I find to be every way the man I have ^{ever} heard him ^{characterized} ~~spoken of~~ Saturday Sept. 8 - dined with Mr Haggen saw him & Mr White. Some Tobacco wine & Chocolat - mending sails - blowing very hard at NW all day

Sunday Sep. 9 - wrote to the mast ship to Mr. Thob. Hoyle N York - am in hopes of having a Convey to Annapolis - ~~shall~~ shall know more of it tomorrow - if one shall wait for it - fair - all day wind NW - moderate. dined ashore at Mr Haggen

Monday Sep 10 - still waiting in hopes of convey & have some prospect of carrying some Garrison Stores to Annapolis myself - shall then have a Party sufficient to keep off Boats - at any ^{rate} could not ^{have} sailed to day the wind being right against us - fresh at S & SW - fair Spent this day rambling about the Country the hereabouts is very broken barren & but little cultivated - ^{but} abounding in vast quan-tities of excellent Lime Stone - Fort Howe is built on a ^{single} Lime Stone - 'tis a pretty large one - saw Mr Haggen his two pkds Tobacco - which I could not do before we have had such blowing weather there two days past

Tuesday Sep 11 - Dirty - rainy - wind at S & SW

Wednesday 12 - Fair - Wind Wly - waited till 12 Clock at Noon to sail with the Men of War & the mast ship - about 3 - they came to sail - few the same but the ^{wind} dying away & soon after springing
