To Eliza

Eliza, dearest maid farwell
From you I now must part
Leave you ⁱⁿ Halifax to dwell
Apply the Seaman's art

2

Then we a very different Scene
Around us shall survey
you Treasurs in red, in brown, & green,
I monsters of the sea

3

Employments too of different kind
Will then consume each day you to amuse or inform your mind
I to explore my way

4

But whatsoever my employ -
Or where so e'er I go
I ne'er shall know a heart-felt joy
Till I return to you

5

Till that much-wish'd-for hour ^{comes round}
May you still happy live
And with those joys each day be crown'd
Which Health & Virtue give
