

My Mamma, &
 Sally are already so
 attached to Blacky
 that I shall be as much pained to separate him from them
 as I have been from
 you. His aunt Pen
 is on a visit to Dr.
 Haliburton's, & has not yet seen him —
 altho' several pressing messages have been sent.

sent. — It is rather too far till
 he is more rested.
 Think of the rascal,
 telling me "that
 " He did not come to
 " Halifax to read —
 " It's time enough
 " for that (says he)
 " ^{when} ~~till~~ I get to England."

Morris thinks he shall stay here about a month, & I will keep