I am oblig^d. to call on Mr. Byles for assistance the damn^d. Gout has attack^d. me so violently in my right hand that it pains me to write.

The Gout — nor the Devil — shall hinder me from saying that I am your faithful & affectionate

U.N.B. ARCHIVES

My dear Wife.

I had this moment the pleasure of receiving Robinson's letter of the 1st instant, wherein he acquaints me of your wellfare — & that the children are all perfectly well — & I sincerely thank him for the information.
