

2.

but I acknowledge that a line under your own hand is always most acceptable. — Jones who delivered the letter acquainted me that Major Thompson & Murray were to come by land.
I shall be anxious till I see them. — I wrote you that I had sprained my ankle — I have been suffering severe pain with ^{it} ever since I last wrote, & to complete the matter I have now some

3.

some very disagreeable twinges of the Gout in the same foot. I suppose you will not pity me much, because I dined at Townsend's. — The accident might have happened to a sober man for I literally trod on a round stone & turn'd my ankle. I have nothing further to communicate to you relative to our future operations. I have written Mr. Williams & requested