

6.

D.N.B. ARCHIVES

first ship. — Murray says that there is a school kept in Fortine, & Log-
-hut, and (as I really am anxious to have justice done to this little innocent boy) I think it will be rendering him an essential service to send him to it — at least several days in the week, and at such hours as he may be best spared.

This

D.N.B. ARCHIVES

7.

This I submit for your consideration.

One difficulty I fear will arise which is about his lodging — He has discovered his aversion, (& I applaud him for it) to lodging with the Black boy here — of course he will not incline to lodge with Frank. and (as he is to be a ladies servant altogether) I think he should be delicately used. Some little birth may be contrived for him detached from