

I am gratified at the opportunity of proposing to Thompson to send both his Houses to Annapolis - & of offering him Jack Hayman to ride here, & to carry him home whenever he pleases. -

With respect to money My Mary! You must take it of Mr. Williams - I hate to trouble my friends &

& I dare not send cash by every common Traveller. I regret that I did not send some by Blowers. I was so ill that I forgot it. Whenever Mr. Williams draws he will be sure of being paid. That he already knows. - If Blowers has more money than he wants I will leave some with you, I'll pay him here. You
