

26.

Mum: says - Tell mama
to take care of my foony.
She, & welcome to lend it once in a while to W^m Sinclair but to nobody else. I ask him if he has nothing else to say - he comes & whispers.
"Give my love to Mar:."

Here's Morris, Thompson, Hales, Gordon, & the de'et does not know ^{who}, all abusing me about my letter, but all insist on being particularly remembered. Take 'em in a lump.

I should be glad to know whether this method of writing meets your approbation? -

Will Memorandum Books show better on the tops of Beds & bottoms of trunks than loose papers? -
