

8. Let me know whether you have received your friend A. C. Great-Coat. If accidents have happened to prevent that from reaching you it will be necessary to send one, as they are really useful things.

Ev. 3.

How changeable are the ways of the children of Men! I have altered my mind about Brudenel's Will, and have given directions for the payment of it, I have drawn an

9. an order in favor of John Robinson for the sum which I hope he will make application for immediately, I can have no doubt he will obtain it, as I have advanced all the money out of my pocket. — It will be just the same thing to me (if he does) because otherwise I must have paid Robinson the money here for his pay as Master.

What.