

I have had a very handsome present from Col: Mowse. a beautiful writing box with all the materials &c. &c. — so convenient that I shall certainly keep it to myself. —

I have had a tete a tete with old Forrest, and he has expressed himself in such warm terms of friendship toward your Ladyship that I am perfectly reconciled to him, and have lent him my Horse to ride half way to Windsor.

If you should be obliged to procure cloaths for John: before you receive cloth from me let 'em be of the colour I proposed in my last. I shall send by the ship a quantity of unmade green Cloaths & white waistcoats which will last a great while, & I dislike frequent changes of livery.

Gordon has this moment announced his intention of sending off an express tomorrow. & I, ve just discovered that I have begun my letter in a double book, of course it can't be fill.
