

My dear Mamma.

I love you dearly.
How I shall long to see you when I get to England.
I will never forget you my dear Mamma. I shall sail next week in the ship Sally - all my things are pack^d up. - Papa has bought me a charming chest, and Grandmamma is to take me a whole parcel of Gingerbread & Jeyes - & they are to be put in the

and so
as you did last night.
I will if you, I say something handsome to put before it.

Well.
