and of course will draw full rations for yourself & family to the 24th of October. There can be no difficulty on the subject. but I would settle with Mr. Williams to that period. After which you will share the same fate as your neighbors & be at two thirds allowance. I shou^d. From that time return John Proctor on your list.

Thus much for Rations.

I told Byler the other day that you wanted another quarter of a yard of pain-Red Ribband. He was gratify^d at the idea of your exhibiting his performance, & this morning has brot me the piece, which I enclose.

I have no papers or any thing else to send you except a Halifax Gazette, which contains no news.
