

Robinson & Gordon are now employed in fixing Murray, & both of regulating matters for his passage. If he had been Gordon's own & only son he cou^d. not have been more engaged & interested for him.

1 o'clock.

We have this moment heard of an arrival at the Courne. I'll be in the fidgets till I hear particulars.

What.

What can I have written in fifty pages I swear I won't read it for 50/. Our sister Sally says that that painted ribband won't be a most elegant trimming for a White Shawl. If you think so I'll buy one & send you.

Adieu my dearest Mary, Everlastingly
Yours Edw. Stone.
