therefore don't fold.

I write you particularly about the things I intended to send by the ship - if they can't be stored at Granville they must be committed to the care of M^r Williams - but (for the reasons given in my last) I had rather have them at home. - I sent Capt Young's account. I have no objection to paying him a small quantity of the port Wine, but when we have paid our debts I think we shall want the principal part

part of what remains.
- But if Hay must be bought I will send you the Butter & Cheese & every thing else I have already bought them of the Candler.

I am happy that Robinson is with you - For Heaven's sake, look the Chimnies among you.
I am glad you rejected the Grates. I reported the proposal best was fairly
