

26. my wife — write as often as possible — to Your faithful friend
& affectionate
Husband

Ed. Winslow

I think your old acquaintance has been rather shabby
about your great coat &c.
after the trouble I had in taking care of her blasted baggage — I think it, & not quite so genteel to rob you
of your present.

I shall let her old friends know the whole matter.

