

the amount will be exactly one hundred & fifty pounds. now (altho' I do not mean to hurt you too violently) I am under a necessity of acquainting you that I expect my money, and "I take this opportunity of informing you that I will not allow you any longer credit than the 15th of November next, and that if the whole sum is not discharged at or before that day - I will commence my action against you - and "for want thereof" I will take your Body, and hold it in safe safe custody untill all my demands are satisfied. -

You will also consider that your debt is increasing every day. That this is the eleventh volume - of that whatever important public business - occurs in the course of the day, it never interferes with the engagements I am under to you. In all instances the Secretary gives way to the Husband. - - - Consider all these things in your mind, and like a prudent debtor, prepare to pay me, & if you find it difficult to collect the money - I will
