

8. as he has seen Fanning.
He will also be able to give orders about the Vegetable House. & he promises to afford you all possible assistance in your various operations, particularly with a Macon.

Letters in the last Mail still hold up the idea of General Fox, & coming out next spring - but I am determined to suspend my opinion entirely, until I see the face of Master Ship. or some other friend, on whose information I can depend.

I expect 'em every moment.

Wednesday 13th.

When I came last to Granville I had a Book call^d.

"The History of Nova Scotia" which belong^d to Miss Little.

It is the only one perhaps in the world, & I wou^d not lose it on any consideration but as it appeared of little importance & lay about the house I fear some body or other may pick it up.
I wish you wou^d find it & put it away safely - so
