

True I, m a little out of temper. — I, ll leave off. — Friday 15th.

My Great Fox-dog
Great Coat, was left at Granville y Adderbrooke says if it is not constantly aired that all the hair will come off.
It's an excellent thing for fleighting, therefore take care of it. — have it brushed upmended - y put away safe.

Remember you promised to have my Coat turn'd my Boots soat, d, y about a hundred other things done for me.

Wyles is the only person who has detected me in this method of letter writing. my official memorandums are kept in the same kind of Book, and yesterday morning I left this by accident on the table. He was looking for the minutes of the day — and opened where there was some very loving expression. The poor fellow was fairly frightened. but after recovering himself a little — He says — "I see Sir you keep two