UNB. ARCHIVES

Strange as it is I can't help sending this letter by the Express. and I will frankly acknowledge the reason. I am sure that between this & Wednesday morn^g. I shall feel an inclination to write more pages than there is vacant in this Book. — & as I observe on the other side it would be too bad to send two volumes at once.

You, I see Thompson about Saturday or Sunday Evening with Jack Hayman. —

UNB. ARCHIVES

I send for my dear little Popsy a sweet pretty looking Glass to see her beautiful face. I hope it will not be broke. I shall put up a prodigious collection of fine things to send by the ship, for her & Tom Coffin. Kiss 'em all, five hundred times a piece for me. —

No arrivals since my last — no news. —

Remember me particularly to Robinson — I'll write him by Thompson, & I'll send
