 Tuesday
 I return you many thanks for your kind favour of November 24.th which reached me on Sunday, and congratulate you on your safe arrival at Mount Necepity. As your touch of the Gout is one of those obedient attacks that only last while they are convenient, I don't suppose it gives you much pain or anxiety - though I think you have now a right of Exemption from all attacks whatever, for one year at least.

 It's a hard case if one month out of twelve won't excuse you.

Your confidence in the trio will not I hope be misplaced. I think we shall give satisfaction to his Excellency, and you, my dear Sir, may rely on our utmost exertions to conduct every thing with propriety, and deserve your
