

When you go to New Brunswick it is worth your while to recollect that Col. De Vetter owes you three Dividas, which was paid him on your account by Mercure.

The Sloop which sailed for Annapolis about the time you left Halifax, and was to have taken your things has been cast away at Prospect & the cargo lost — This is one of the instances which shows what good terms you are upon with Providence.

His Excellency The Governor, agreeable to the instruction he received from Lord Sydney, recommended to the House of Assembly to revive the law for exempting from duties the Rum and Molasses issued to his Majesty's troops here: but it has been rejected by a majority of three to one. Dr. Phillips headed the opposition, and swore he would leave the province if it took place.
