

would be favourable to your grand system of raising the importance of Nova Scotia.
 And his rank would give every sanction to any report you might receive from him.
 From his general character I imagine he would be pleased with an opportunity to promote the good of his Government, especially as he might at the same time gain clat to himself.
 Therefore you were to write him a handsome letter

I can forward it — Or you might engage him through Mr. Gibbons, who is a very particular friend of his, and has always shown an inclination to be civil to you.

Dr. Calef who came passenger in the Hermione says that the Board for examining the claims of the Loyalists will get through their business by the next meeting of Parliament.
