

the reason — I believe she hasn't got one ready yet.

I'll step and ask her —

Miss Winslow hates
writing, and has nothing to write about.

Rather shabby that however 'tis all I could get.

If it was my sister, I should conceive it a duty incumbent on me to be affronted with her.

December 17th 1784.

If you recollect, a few days before you left Halifax a large return was presented you of the quantity of Cloathing & necessaries issued by M^r Johnson under order from General Fox, which was examined, found right and signed — On laying this before the Board of accounts they discovered that he had put all the ages under one head — & as the Board & commissioners
