

were different prices they insisted on having them distinguished. He has therefore been obliged to make out ^{two} ~~a~~ fresh returns in which the only alteration is that broad axes are in one column & cornmmon in another. As they are very bulky I haven't thought it worth while to incumber you with them, but will wait your permission to sign them for you. I think you may give it with safety. In the mean time I will keep them by me. Do let me have it soon as Johnson is very impatient.

A large provision ship has arrived at Shelburne, to the great relief of the poor people there and the Adassant is now expected here with flour. We begin to be anxious about her as she might have been reasonably looked for a fortnight ago.