

The old dispute has lately been revived about the reserved lands at Shelburne, on which great depredations are daily making — His Excellency has been wroth to, but again evaded a definitive answer — The correspondence including the famous letter wrote by General Fox is preparing to be transmitted by the Race Horse which sails next week. — Lieut. Lawson the Asst. Engineer

there, goes home in turn, and takes charge of the letter —

Mr. Coffin's Papers are ready, and will also go by that opportunity —
