

all unfavourable for your friend St. Benjamin, who I dare say will find his interest in it, let the event turn as it will.

Leonardi and his balloon engross the whole attention of the Publick, and fill every corner of the English papers. — There is a parcel of them for you, which I imagine your friends here will take the liberty to open, as there is no chance of sending them for the present.

Saturday 22^d

The Lord knows how I shall get on now — I have waited there four days for your letter, in hopes it would help me along thro' three or four leaves; but the Express man came off too soon it seems. I'm
