

of the loyalists - however as the quantity was small it didn't cause much alarm in this quarter, and his Excellency is informed that the money will be paid whenever applied for. - A Schoop loaded with flour from the Adamant sailed from this yesterday for St. John's, and another is to follow her in a few days.

The proprietors of St. Ann's Point have wrote an address of thanks to the General, for his attention to that place in establishing a post there, and building a magazine - It is signed by Major Armstrong, and a polite answer to it goes by this Express.

A circular letter has been wrote to the Commissioners at the different