Major Gordon a slight confusion in the breast occasioned by a fall coming from the 33^d Step in the evening.

So much for news

Wednesday 26th

Mr. Brittain tells me that your Gout is still hanging about you. I hope it does not carry on the attack so violently as to prevent your amusing yourself with your sleigh, or sporting at the Annapolis Assemblies - indeed I can't help flattering myself that it is only a political touch, which is predestined to keep you at Granville till the Spring. Gordon pretends to expect you soon - The
