our own - I have called on Mr. Kingsley for the money lent him & hope I shall get it by the time it is wanted. - Haren has presented a certificate which balances the money advanced him - by the way - do send me his private account, as he has deferred paying for the shirts till I receive it - & tell me how the house rent is to be settled.

While the Chest is in this situation there can be no chance for speculating - when a fresh supply arrives we may possibly ~~stand~~ do something party of Consultants had arrived there & brought the news of a Governor General which disturbs them very much as they foresee some of the good consequences which will flow from such a measure.

With all my manoeuvring I shan't be able to quit S. John's before the middle of January and my present system is to return with you. As we expect you here after the St. Ann's Court is over. it will be about the time the house adjourns & there will be a good jolly
