

I cannot omit to mention them as they give me the greatest pleasure - I sincerely hope your own arrangements will at last take place and that I shall see my most valuable Friend in a situation where he may exert his talents to advantage & free himself from every embarrassment at present it's by no means fair play - I feel as anxious for your next English letters as you can do, & the moment they arrive they shall be forwarded Have returned this morning from New York.

The family are all well and Sally is writing to you Chipman has lost all his English newspapers letters &c. in a schooner of D. Poirer which left the Gut of Annapolis about a fortnight ago for this place & has never been heard of. - She was from Halifax with 600 barrels of Pork, & put into Digby in a storm.

When this letter will go I know not - but I shall seize the first conveyance be it when it will - give my love to the little folks & tell Pop to send me word who her
