

and Mr. Roberts his agent says that "Government will not in future make any allowance for such expenses" - the half fees are, I fancy, supposed to be a sufficient accom-
pence for everything of the kind - All
these reasons make me
imagine that my appointment under Captain Sproule will be of very short duration.

and I wish it possible to be prepared for a dissolution - There, my dear Sir, are facts which I wish you to be possessed of before your tour to Canada - Beyond this I know it is unnecessary to add - The parent and the Friend have been so invariably unified in your conduct towards me that they have left no room for
