

present of the Back pay?
 As the duty was all along performed by me, and in so still, I think the latter but reasonable in my present circumstances, for I really want the douceur of an additional 2/6 as much as any body, 7/1 a day being considerably less than I spend - At any rate if he is to be continued, he may as well perform the duty, and I would give him up the Book & papers.

There - I won't bore you any more - if I can help it -

It certainly is ridiculous me as a very impudent thing when a man is so faintly in the wind as you honour ~~to~~ to dash at him with an additional catalogue of one's own necessities.
 I have no apology to make so I'll turn over leaf.
