

In continuation

I meant when you was in town to have ask'd you if you could lend any assistance to Lodge about his land, at the Maguagadavick in Papamaguoddy Bay. (Maguagadavick and Papamaguoddy are two very good words in a memorandum-book-letter.) He has wrote me to desire I would procure him a grant of it, but on making the application I was inform'd that he must first declare his intention of immediately removing here, and produce a certificate from the Secretary of Nova Scotia that he had received no proportion of lands in that province - neither of these will be in his
